Rev. Greer will be discussing his new book, The Path of Compassion, with us on September 26.

Written by a seasoned pastoral counselor, The Path of Compassion explores engaging our heartfelt empathy effectively into an attitude of love and acts of kindness. The book helps persons of faith to learn the dynamics of compassion as they grow into their deepest and most caring selves.

It is based on the foundational truths of the scriptures to love God "with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" – and to love "your neighbor as yourself." In three sections, Greer explores the loving compassion of the heart, soul, and mind.

The Path of Compassion delves into how we mature into ever-deepening levels of grace, making us more available with spiritual and emotional intimacy.

Books will be available for purchase for $18.50.
All proceeds will benefit purchasing UZima water filters for impoverished regions in Kenya.

This 12 week study is written by Fredrick J. Long, a professor at Asbury Theological Seminary. It is part of the Seedbed Daily-Weekly discipleship resource. Exiled from Israel and held as a political prisoner for Christ on his way to Rome, Paul had something to say to the believers in Ephesus and Asia Minor. He spent more than three years ministering in the region. He lived there, preached there, was persecuted there, bled there and nearly died there. He also never wavered. Come join in this opportunity for spiritual growth while looking at Paul's grand vision for the church as Christ's people.

Joy is the constant companion of the woman who trusts in the Lord. And while you can find it in friends, family, and circumstances, unfailing, persistent joy will only ever overflow from your relationship with Jesus. Just ask Job, the man from Uz who clung to God's goodness while all his worldly joys were stripped away. But how is it possible to hold onto such joy in times of sorrow? In this 7-session study by Lisa Harper, discover the redemptive facet of Job's suffering. Learn to view pain as a way to strengthen your faith, point others to the gospel, and trust in the Lord.
